

PUPPY SCHEDULE

6:00 AM - 6:45 AM

WAKE UP

Take your puppy out of their crate and bring them outside for 5-15 minutes to potty and explore. If they quickly pee, wait them out for a poop, puppies almost always have to poop in the morning! Once they have relieved themselves you can bring them back indoors for supervised play time/training time. During training time your puppy should be receiving their kibble as rewards for good behaviour. Once social time is over, bring your puppy outside for a quick potty break.

6:50 AM - 8:00 AM

PLAYPEN

This is your puppy's time to learn to entertain themselves. They can either play with a puppy safe toy you have chosen or they can take a nap. You can reinforce quiet calm behaviour by walking by and dropping a piece of kibble every now and then when they're behaving.

8:00 AM - 8:15 AM

POTTY BREAK

This is just a quick potty break. Bring your puppy outdoors to relieve themselves.

8:15 AM - 11:15 AM

CRATE TIME

Time for some alone time in their crate.

7:30 PM – 8:30 PM

LAST HANGOUT

Bring your puppy outside for 5-15 minutes to potty and explore. Once they have relieved themselves you can bring them back indoors for supervised time. It is important that we do relaxed activities only and not get the puppy all excited before going to bed. You can begin by playing for a few minutes, then just hangout quietly together. Once your done relaxing together bring your puppy out for a quick potty break.

8:35 PM – 11:30 PM

CRATE TIME

Time for bed.

POTTY BREAK

Just a quick potty break. The moment they relieve themselves you can bring them back inside.

This is a rough schedule and can vary depending on your dog's breed, genetics and individual temperament. THE GOAL is to prevent bad behaviours from occurring through proper schedule and management. Puppies can graduate to more freedom as they age, or offer good behaviours when loose.
